Procol Harum Concert Coming to Blu-Ray Mon 08/15/11 00:14

Procol Harum's Live at Union Chapel will make its Blu-ray debut on September 13. The video was recorded in 2003 at the Union Chapel in London and originally released on standard DVD the following year. The new Blu-ray features two and a half hours of content including the band's 21-song performance and an interview with Procol Harum frontman Gary Brooker.

Live at Union Chapel finds the band playing old hits like "A Whiter Shade of Pale" and "Conquistador" as well as material from the 2003 album The Well's on Fire. It will set you back just under $20.
