On July 6th and July 13th, The Rolling Stones played at London's Hyde Park and on Tuesday (11/12), those gigs will be out on DVD and Blu-ray. The set is called Sweet Summer Sun – Hyde Park Live and features two-hours of live concert footage plus some backstage footage as well. Many of the bands fans will be checking out the disc, but one person who won't be watching it is Stones drummer Charlie Watts. He told us why.

(Cut #6) “I can't stand looking at myself or listening to myself.”

Among the hits the guys played for the huge crowd are “Start Me Up,” “Brown Sugar,” “Jumpin' Jack Flash,” “Gimme Shelter,” “Sympathy for the Devil” and more. Pick up Sweet Summer Sun – Hyde Park Live on Tuesday.
