Rolling Stones to Release Two Concerts 'From the Vault'

The Rolling Stones will release two vintage concerts on DVD, CD, Blu-ray and vinyl in November. Eagle Rock's new 'From the Vault' series will kick off with 'Hampton Coliseum — Live in 1981' on Nov. 4, followed by 'L.A. Forum — Live in 1975' on Nov. 18. The two shows were previously available in digital audio format via the band's official archive site.

The label is going all out with the packages, restoring the video footage and enlisting Bob Clearmountain to remix the sound. The shows will be available in several formats, including stand-alone Blu-ray and DVD sets, as well as the videos bundled with CDs and vinyl records.

The Hampton Coliseum concert includes the entire two-and-a-half-hour show from the Stones' Dec. 18 stop in Virginia as part of the mega-successful U.S. tour in support of 1981's 'Tattoo You.' In addition to songs from that album, 'Hampton Coliseum' also includes classics like 'Under My Thumb,' 'Tumbling Dice,' 'Brown Sugar' and 'Shattered,' which you can watch below.

The L.A. Forum show comes from the band's Tour of the Americas '75, which was its first with guitarist Ronnie Wood. The two-and-a-half-hour performance — taken from their July 12 gig during a five-night stand in Los Angeles — features Stones classics 'Honky Tonk Women,' 'Gimme Shelter,' 'You Can't Always Get What You Want' and 'Sympathy for the Devil.' You can see 'Star Star' from the video above.
