50 YEARS AGO: THE BEATLES, THE ROLLING STONES – AND CHICAGO

One of the best versions of “Satisfaction” can be heard on the DVD “The Rolling Stones From the Vault: The Marquee, Live 1971,” released earlier this summer (Eagle Rock Entertainment). Rare video of this intimate 1971 London club performance was actually filmed for a U.S. television special. The completely restored video and remixed audio is excellent and the young guns of rock (Jagger, Richards, Charlie Watts, Bill Wyman and Mick Taylor) look and sound amazing. It’s also the first time you’ll hear live versions of “Brown Sugar,” “Dead Flowers,” “Bitch” and “I Got the Blues.”
