GET JUSTIN HAYWARD'S *SPIRITS OF THE WESTERN SKY

This week, Moody Blues guitarist Justin Hayward put out his new solo album, Spirits of the Western Sky. While fans are no doubt excited to pick up the effort, Justin told us how he is always excited to write new music.

(Cut #7) "It's a kind of cathartic thing to write because it brings things out of you and it's calming as well. It gets stuff out."

The set includes songs like "One Day, Someday," "On the Road to Love," and "In Your Blue Eyes," plus features orchestrations by Academy Award-winning composer Anne Dudley. If that's not enough, Justin also tries his hand at country and bluegrass on three songs. Pick it up today and learn more at JustinHayward.com.
