Eagles of Death Metal live DVD "I Love You All the Time" arriving in August

Eagle Rock Entertainment

Eagles of Death Metal have announced a new live DVD titled I Love You All the Time -- Live at The Olympia in Paris.

The film documents the band's February 2016 show at The Olympia in Paris. It marked the band's return to the French capital just three months after their concert at the Bataclan concert hall was attacked by terrorists.

I Love You All the Time will be released on August 4. You can watch a clip of Eagles of Death Metal performing the song "I Love You All the Time" at that show now on YouTube.

Eagles of Death Metal's return to Paris was also documented in the documentary Eagles of Death Metal: Nos Amis (Our Friends), which premiered on HBO earlier this year.

Eagles of Death Metal are currently on tour with Mastodon.
